On November 16, 1967, the following individuals were found guilty in the United States District Court (USDC), Miami, for violation of the Neutrality Act and the Munitions Control Act: ✓

ROLANDO MASFERRER ROJAS

FATHER JOHN BAPTISTE ~~X~~ GEORGESMARTIN ~~X~~ CASEYRENE ~~X~~ LEONJULIO ~~X~~ ATON ~~X~~ CONSTANZOANTONIO ~~X~~ ROJASMASFERRER'S Plans Continuing

MM T-7 advised in August, 1967, that MASFERRER was going ahead with his plans to invade Haiti with the same American mercenaries and Cuban and Haitian exiles. MM T-7 said that the majority of the persons arrested with MASFERRER on January 2, 1967, in the Florida Keys plan to participate in MASFERRER's next invasion attempt against Haiti. (S)(u)

MM T-7 said that a 75' boat, the "Yipee" was brought from Chicago, Illinois, to Naples, Florida, and it was planned this boat would be used in the next invasion attempt. Also, MASFERRER planned to buy or charter one or more DC-3 airplanes to take the men and/or arms to Haiti. (S)(u)

MM T-9, a Cuban exile closely associated with MASFERRER, on September 14, 1967, advised that the "Yipee" was still at Naples, Florida, and some $3,000 in repair bills for the boat had accrued. MM T-9 said that CLIFTON ~~X~~ HARM, from Chicago, bought the boat for about $7500, tried to sell it to MASFERRER for $17,000, who was trying to sell it to another Cuban exile for $25,000, but that the boat was probably worth less than $5,000. areas to be called by MASFERRER for another invasion attempt against Haiti. However, MASFERRER has been unable to raise any funds and during October, 1967, was quite concerned about the possibility of being convicted in the USDC in Miami. MM T-9 explained that MASFERRER will not take any further action on his plan until there is final disposition made of his January 2, 1967, arrest in the Florida Keys. (S)(u)

Representacion Cubana del Exilio
(Cuban Representation in Exile) (RECE)

RECE is an anti-CASTRO organization maintaining headquarters at 1784 West Flagler Street, Miami. It is involved in political and propaganda operations. (u)

MM T-10, a Cuban exile who has been active with the leadership of RECE for the past three years advised on October 6, 1967, that the executive committee of the organization had been expanded and now includes ANTONIO CALATAYUD and MIGUEL ECHEGOYEN. The following other three individuals continue their positions on the executive committee: (S)(u) Fm

ERNESTO FREYRE

VICENTE RUBIERA

JORGE MAS (S)(u)

MM T-10 explained that RECE recently decided on a policy change and as a result has suspended all plans for future military operations against Cuba. RECE found it was too expensive to engage in military activities and the money previously spent on these operations did not produce any significant results. RECE believes the organization can obtain more dollar value for money spent on legal political activities in the United States in an effort to obtain U.S. Government recognition and backing. (S)(u)

RECE now has a program of contacting U.S. Congressmen and Senators to promote plans for increasing economic boycotts of Cuba. A lobbyist in Washington, D.C., not further identified, has been hired by RECE. (S)(u)
